In the foreground, there is a swimming pool with a diving board and a set of stairs. The pool's surface reflects the lights from the house. The overall scene is dark, with the house and pool providing the primary light sources.

LIVE NOW IN THE FUTURE: A PLACE TO BEGIN AGAIN

Welcome to Green City Estate Uyo A Place to Begin Again

Green City Estate is not just a destination. It is a feeling—

A calm in the heart of Uyo, where 30 hectares of lush promise stretch wide enough to cradle dreams.

Here, the land breathes. The trees listen. And every path quietly whispers, "You are home."

This is a place that speaks the language of tomorrow—where homes breathe, roads guide gently, and every corner whispers the promise of sustainability.

For those seeking a destination that evolves with them, Green City Estate offers a canvas—one painted with security, self-sufficiency, and smart urban living.

Here!... investors plant not just money—but legacy.

"Home is part of your family."

A Tapestry of Zones, Woven with Intention

Divided not by boundaries, but by purpose, Green City Estate unfolds in five unique zones, each crafted to serve a rhythm of life:

- The Freehold Zone, wide and waiting for greatness.
- The Commercial Heart, vibrant as a village square.
- Sites & Services, where individuality finds structure.
- The Designed Residences, calm sanctuaries in stone.
- And the Leisure Core, where laughter lingers.

Together, they form a living mosaic—each piece holding meaning, every edge designed for flow

The Freehold Zone – Ground for Growth

For the builders, the growers, and the dreamers!

Stretching across generous acres, it calls forth agriculture, processing, and industry alike.

Here, the earth doesn't just wait—it welcomes.

It is the estate's fertile soul—calling out to farmers, agropreneurs, industrial developers, and visionaries ready to shape tomorrow's supply chains.

Here, vast plots welcome processing plants, food industries, and agri-businesses, all beside fertile land ready to yield. With thoughtful access roads and buffer zones, this section is designed not just to host production—but to power the local economy.

This is where investors do not merely build—they sow. And Green City Estate ensures what is sown here, thrives.

The Commercial Heartbeat

Uyo's New Nerve Centre

Imagine a district that never sleeps—but never stresses. The Commercial Zone hums with quiet purpose, where the energy of commerce meets the calm of community living.

It is here that a full-sized mall rises over 0.6 hectares, anchoring the heartbeat of trade. Ten corner shops stretch along 1.0 hectare, flanking cobbled walkways where local entrepreneurs showcase wares that speak of both ambition and identity.

A filling station, modest at 0.15 hectares, sits smartly within reach—offering both utility and movement. Two office plazas, each on 0.4 hectares, reflect the estate's belief that workspaces should inspire just as much as they function.

At the centre, the open market spreads across 0.5 hectares, pulsing with the rhythm of community trade. It is a space of exchange, of smiles and bargaining, where culture and commerce dance freely.

And still, 1.0 hectare of commercial plots remain—reserved for future dreams: cafés, tech hubs, co-working terraces, lounges, or boutiques that light up the evening.

If the estate had a pulse, it would beat here.

- Shops that glow by nightfall.
- Entrepreneurs finding visibility.
- Investors finding predictable footfall.

In Green City Estate, the Commercial Zone is not just open for business—it is open for belonging.

Land Use Philosophy: Balanced, Purposeful, Future-Ready

At Green City Estate, land is not merely divided—it is thoughtfully assigned to reflect a deep commitment to livability, sustainability, and long-term value.

- The Residential Zone occupies the largest share, with 11 hectares representing 40.99% of the total land area. The Commercial Zone, designed to spark commerce and convenience, covers 4.05 hectares, which is 15.09% of the estate. It forms the economic engine of the community—where business and lifestyle connect.
- The Institutional Zone holds 1.6 hectares, or 5.96% of the total space. This area supports the estate's schools and worship centre, ensuring that education and values are never far from daily life.
- The Utility Zone is vital. It spans 0.68 hectares—just 2.53%—but houses the infrastructure that powers and protects the entire estate.
- The estate also reserves 0.72 hectares (2.68%) for Emergency Services, ensuring space for fire response, medical aid, and estate-level safety planning.
- Green Spaces and Recreational Areas stretch across 1.35 hectares, amounting to 5.03% of the estate. These are the lungs of the community—where leisure, breath, and balance meet.

Finally, 1.5 hectares, or 5.59%, is designated for Agro-based Industry and a Palm Plantation, blending nature and enterprise to anchor sustainability and productivity in the land itself. Altogether, the estate's masterplan reflects a clear philosophy: when space is wisely planned, every part of life flourishes. Green City Estate is not just a plotted layout—it is a purposefully engineered future.

Residential Zone: Homes that Know You by Name

In this zone, homes aren't just built—they are nurtured.

Apartments, terraces, semi-detached and detached homes—all curated to blend with nature and evolve with the family.

Each unit is built with purpose, from expansive windows that greet the morning sun to shaded balconies that share evening breezes.

Spread across 12 hectares, the layout is intentional:

- 120 plots of 500 sqm each provide compact luxury for smart living—ideal for young families, professionals, and first-time homeowners seeking just enough space to live fully. (6.0 Ha total)
- 50 plots of 1,000 sqm offer expanded elegance—room for courtyards, gardens, maybe even a small pool. Perfect for legacy homes, multi-generational living, or those who believe in building with boldness. (5.0 Ha total)

Streets are lined with low shrubs, children's laughter dances through cul-de-sacs, and neighbours become lifelong friends.

This is not just accommodation—it is rooted living. And it welcomes all who value quality, peace, and community.

Nature as a Neighbour

At Green City Estate, the landscape doesn't just sit pretty—it speaks. It shades walkers at noon, cools homes without complaint, and hums with the chorus of birds at dawn.

The Estate that Breathes

There is green that pleases the eye—and then there is green that speaks to the soul.

At Greenspace, landscaping is not an accessory—it is the very language of the land.

Palm courts, tree-lined boulevards, and gentle gardens

This is where nature isn't background—it is a neighbour, a friend, a co-host to your every day.

Leisure and Living Combined

What if one never needed to leave home to have a vacation?

The Leisure Zone of Greenspace offers:

- A family park
- Mini amphitheatre
- Games arena
- Kids' splash zone
- Jogging tracks

Evenings turn into spontaneous picnics. Birthdays become block-wide affairs. And quiet weekends bloom into shared experiences. This is where fun is woven into the everyday—without disrupting the peace.

Learning, Worship, and Celebration—Without Leaving

Why should sacred spaces be far—Why should schools be traffic away?... Here, they are near.

Within its 1.6 hectares, education and devotion stand side by side, woven thoughtfully into the community fabric.

- Two Nursery and Primary Schools, each on 0.3 hectares, are designed for the early years—spaces where curiosity blooms, voices rise in recitation, and morning bells set futures in motion. (Total: 0.6 Ha)
- A Secondary School, carefully positioned on 0.5 hectares, promises continuity—where teenage minds are sharpened, talents discovered, and lifelong ambitions shaped.
- A Worship Centre, also on 0.5 hectares, offers more than rituals—it offers refuge. Whether at sunrise or dusk, it invites every soul to pause, reflect, and reconnect.

These are the quiet pillars of belonging. And at Green City, they are not add-ons—they are foundations.

Roads That Carry More Than Cars

Green City Estate doesn't merely have roads—it has roads that guide with purpose. The axial road gently encircles the entire estate, ensuring connectivity while preserving quiet residential hearts.

It curves gently, protecting the quiet of homes,

While still leading every resident toward the park, the plaza, or the farmland. Cycling lanes, walking paths, and nature trails wrap themselves around the estate.

Here, every journey is a joy—and every path, a promise of return.

Powered by Sustainability and Utility

Green city estate does not talk about sustainability and utility. It lives it. At Green City Estate, the Utility Zone may be modest in size—just 0.68 hectares—but its importance is profound. This is where reliability lives. Where systems hum to life, ensuring every other zone runs smoothly.

- A Transformer Site on 0.03 hectares safeguards stable electricity, delivering confidence to homes, shops, and schools.
- The Power House, set on 0.05 hectares, acts as the pulse room—housing control units, backups, and operational tech that keep the estate awake when the city sleeps.
- A Water Management Facility spanning 0.3 hectares ensures that flow is never interrupted. From irrigation to tap, it manages with purpose.
- And Electric vehicle support, solar-lit streets, recycling stations that teach children to honour the earth., intelligent drainage systems. This is not just an eco-friendly estate. It is an ecosystem. And it welcomes those who wish to tread lightly and live deeply
